Studio Voltaire's fourth annual open submission exhibition aims to showcase the strength and diversity of its studio and external membership, which currently comprises over 200 artists. Every year, the changing panel of invited artists, critics and curators, select artist's work.

This year's exhibition includes the work of twenty-two artists. The panel have selected the most engaging work from this year's submissions to produce an acumination of diverse artist approaches and contexts.

Works include a large scale sculptural installation and wall painting by Markus Vater, that will dominate the space; a site specific intervention outside of the gallery by Pablo Bronstein and drawings by Adam Latham that present a bewildering post-colonial setting. In addition, there will be an evening of live performance with Laura Cull and William Hunt, and a screening of Joe Walsh's pop styled video Mr Miguel, an ode to vaginal penetration.
